Dr. Saptarshi Chakraborty, Principal of Panchakot Mahavidyalaya, chaired the meeting. He told the members that, in the last few years, there had been no instances of ragging at Panchakot Mahavidyalaya (including the hostels). He reaffirmed that there has never been a ragging event at Panchakot Mahavidyalaya and that the college has a history of upholding calm, welcoming environment for students. He also underlined the need of continuing this practice into the upcoming years.

The anti-ragging vigilance squad reports 'zero occurrence' of ragging events inside the college campus.

It was unanimously requested by the house that the Anti-Ragging Committee hold an awareness campaign for the students and staffs of the college to enlighten them regarding the laws and activities of Anti-Ragging cell and encourage them not to indulge in ragging related activities.

Since there were no other issues, the meeting was ended with a vote of thanks to the Chair.
