Academic Year: 2018-2019

Date: 11-08-2018

Resource Person: Prof. Kakali Layek

No of Students enrolled: 36

No of Students present: 32

Objectives:

- To develop good listening skills
- To be able to use English freely and grammatically in speech
- To be able to understand the meaning and importance of soft skills
- the ability to use the art of 'listening' to build relationships and transform every situation into a profitable one
- real-time feedback on their own display of empathetic listening
- the necessary skill to identify and clarify any misinterpretation caused due to the lack of effective listening
- capability to demonstrate active listening even in situations of emotional distress and trauma
- Learning Outcome: The participants have acquired self-motivation to acquire and apply the comprehensive knowledge of listening skills, and were able to listen, understand and project views in a convincing manner. They have also gained the ability to use cohesion mechanisms to distinguish different ideas.
