REPORT

SOFT SKILL DEVELOPMENT PROGRAM

Organized by: Panchakot Mahavidyalya

Program name: Mock Interview

Programme Duration: 1 day

Academic Year: 2022-2023

Date: 24/09/2022

Resource Persons: Prof. Sandip Maity, Prof. Suman Kumar Chanda, Prof. Madhurima Mullick, Prof. Srimanta Kanji, Prof. Debkumar Bhattacharya

No of Students enrolled: 46

No of Students present: 42

Objectives: The programme aims to -

- Provide aspiring candidates with a way to assess their condition which will determine how they perform in the actual interviews.
- Allow candidates to showcase their skills, communication, and problem-solving abilities, providing valuable insights into their performance under interview conditions.
- Provide constructive feedback from interviewers, helping candidates identify strengths and weaknesses. This feedback guides targeted improvement for future interviews.
- Alleviate interview anxiety by offering a practice run. Familiarity with common questions and interview dynamics helps candidates feel more confident and composed during actual interviews.
- Assist in preparing for behavioral questions by practicing responses to commonly asked questions. This helps candidates articulate their experiences and achievements effectively.

- Help candidates manage interview time effectively. Mock interviews simulate real-time constraints, encouraging candidates to express themselves clearly and concisely within allotted timeframes

Learning Outcome:

- Candidates were able to reduce their anxiety and stress by sitting for mock interviews.
- The mock interview session boosted the confidence of candidates and made them confident of their abilities and skills.
- The session allowed the students to acquire constructive feedback in identifying their mistakes and weaknesses.
- The session helped the students analyse their personalities while facing unfamiliar questions
