

Course Outcomes (CO) of Major Course (NEP2020)

Paper: Major-(MAJ-1)

Course Title: Understanding Political Theory

- Course Outcomes: The whole course will have the following outcomes
- The Course projects the global and interdisciplinary orientation of Political Theory. It also emphasizes the interplay of theory and practice in the political process.
- To understand the difference between ideology and thought as well as between theory and ideology.
- To understand the relationship between ideas and politics.
- To understand the core doctrines of each of the ideologies and to make sense of politics through different ideological perspectives.
- To introduce the student to the basic concept and Ideologies. To acquaint the students with the contemporary debates across the ideologies.
- To enable the students to face the competitive examinations (UPSC, PSC, NET/ SET)

Paper: Major(MAJ-2)

Course Title: Constitution of India

- Course Outcomes: The whole course will have the following outcomes
- The purpose of this course is to introduce to the students the basic information and analytical frame work for studying of Indian Constitution.
- To acquaint the students with the Objectives, Structure and Functions of Union Government and Union Legislature.
- It further encourages a study of state institutions in their mutual interaction, and in interaction with the larger extra-constitutional environment.
- To enable the students to qualify the competitive examination like UPSC/ MPSC etc.
- To enable the students to qualify NET/ SET examination.

Paper: Major (MAJ-3)

Course Title: Politics in India

- Course Outcomes: The whole course will have the following outcomes
- The purpose of this course is to introduce to the students the basic information and frame work for studying of Political issues and challenges in India.
- To acquaint the students with the contemporary issues.
- It further encourages a study of state institutions in their mutual interaction, and in interaction with the larger extra-constitutional environment.
- To develop the skills of debate/ discussions/ newspaper reading among the students.

Paper: Major (MAJ-4)

Course Title: Indian Political Thought

- Course Outcomes: The whole course will have the following outcomes
- This course is to familiarize the students with the larger political and social thinking and ideas in Ancient, medieval and Modern India. Designed in a way to help students engage with various ideological dispensations that came to shaped
- To systematically explain the major strands in modern Indian Political Thinkers.
- To apprise students with the basic thought of these thinkers with reference to their perception of colonial rule, ideas of nationalism, critique of western civilization and ideas regarding reconstruction of society.
- To enable the students to qualify the competitive examination like UPSC/PSC, NET/ SET examination.

Paper: Major (MAJ-5)

Course Title: Indian Administration

- Course Outcomes: The whole course will have the following outcomes
- It aims to provide interface between public policy and administration in India. The essence of this paper is to appreciate the translation of governing philosophy into programmes and policies. Students will able to understand Political Process.
- To gain knowledge about the evolution and growth of Indian Administration.
- Familiarity with the constitutional framework on which Indian Administration is based.
- Grasping the role of Union Executive.
- Understanding the in-built control mechanisms over constitutional bodies in particular and administration in general.
- Delineating the constitutional provisions and dynamics of union -state relationships.
- Awareness about the institutions and mechanism in force for citizen-state interface.

Paper: Major (MAJ-6)

Course Title: Western Political Thought

- Course Outcomes: The whole course will have the following outcomes
- This course introduces the students to the ancient, medieval and modern political thinking in the West. This would help them understand the manner in which ideas pertaining to ideal state, kingship, duties of the ruler and the ruled, right learning objectives
- .To familiarize the students with the major phases in the evolution of western political Thinking Namely the Classical Tradition, Liberal Tradition.
- To make the students familiar with the major theoretical issues in the discipline of Political Science as problematized by these western political thinkers.
- To enable the students to qualify the competitive examination like UPSC, PSC, NET/ SET examination.

Paper: Major (MAJ-7)

Course Title: Comparative Politics

- Course Outcomes: The whole course will have the following outcomes
- Politics is the mirror of the society. This paper will help the student in furthering his understanding of the world around. This would help him to appreciate other systems and make him critically analyse the pros and cons of these systems

Learning Objectives

- To understand constitutional frameworks for procedures and policies
- To examine the historical evolution of constitutional doctrines, standards, and tests
- To analyse both early and contemporary judiciary
- To articulate informed opinion over important, controversial, constitutional issues

Paper: Major (MAJ-8)

Course Title: Political Sociology

- Course Outcomes: The whole course will have the following outcomes
- The course equips students to grasp the essential historicity of political processes, political institutions and political change to facilitate an understanding of the dynamic nature of political phenomena.
- The course deals with theoreticPolitical Sociology is one of the core areas of sociology. It is a thriving subfield of sociology with important theoretical and practical consequences. The endeavor in this course is to render it compact, contemporaneous and make it contextual for Indian students, while familiarizing them with enduring conceptual and theoretical concerns. It is rigorously theoretical yet relatable.
- To examine the bases of social power and the relationship between politics and society both analytically as well as in specific empirical contexts. The course is an intensive introduction to the theoretical debates extant in the sub-field and equips students to learn both classical and contemporary arguments about age old questions of power, authority and resistance and their manifestations in political institutions and political systems.
- The course equips students to grasp the essential historicity of political processes, political institutions and political change to facilitate an understanding of the dynamic nature of political phenomena.

Paper: Major (MAJ-9)

Course Title: Public Administration

- Course Outcomes: The whole course will have the following outcomes
- Administration being essential to every organization, this course aims to acquaint a student with fundamentals of public administration to. This would provide him an insight regarding the principles of administration in general.
- Understand the approaches of study of public administration.
- Apply the scientific thoughts in organization.
- Demonstrate the thoughts in the society.

Paper: Major (MAJ-10)

Course Title: International Relations concept and Theories

- Course Outcomes: The whole course will have the following outcomes
- This course seeks to equip students the basic tools for understanding International relations. It also introduces major events and developments that have shaped the contemporary international system. It aims to capture the changing dynamic
- Apply the knowledge base from many disciplines to the study of the international Relations;
- Demonstrate an awareness of international career and study opportunities in government, business, education, and in organizations servicing international concerns.
- To enable the students to qualify the competitive examination like UPSC, MPSC, NET/ SET exam.

Course Outcomes (CO) of Minor Course (NEP2020)

Paper: Major-(ME-1) Course Title: Political Theory

- Course Outcomes: The whole course will have the following outcome
- Understanding Political theory is integral and indispensable for a comprehensive and critical study of political science.
- The Course projects the global and interdisciplinary orientation of Political Theory. It also emphasizes the interplay of theory and practice in the political process.
- To understand the difference between ideology and thought as well as between theory and ideology.
- To understand the relationship between ideas and politics.
- To understand the core doctrines of each of the ideologies and to make sense of politics through different ideological perspectives.
- To introduce the student to the basic concept and Ideologies. To acquaint the students with the contemporary debates across the ideologies.
- To enable the students to face the competitive examinations (UPSC, PSC)

Paper: Major-(ME-1) Course Title: Indian Constitution and Politics

- Course Outcomes: The whole course will have the following outcome
- Course Outcome: Acquaintance to Constitution is indispensable for a student to make a sense of Indian Political System. The course is designed to provide an overview of key concepts of the Indian constitution to the student.
- The purpose of this course is to introduce to the students the basic information and analytical frame work for studying of Indian Constitution.
- To acquaint the students with the Objectives, Structure and Functions of Union Government and Union Legislature.
- It further encourages a study of state institutions in their mutual interaction, and in interaction with the larger extra-constitutional environment.

Paper: Major-(ME-3) Course Title: International Relations

- Course Outcomes: The whole course will have the following outcome
- This course seeks to equip students the basic tools for understanding International relations. It also introduces major events and developments that have shaped the contemporary international system. It aims to capture the changing dynamic.
- Apply the knowledge base from many disciplines to the study of the international Relations;
- Demonstrate an awareness of international career and study opportunities in government, business, education, and in organizations servicing international concerns.
- To enable the students to qualify the competitive examination like UPSC, MPSC, NET/ SET exam.

Course Outcomes (CO) of Skill Enhancement Course (NEP2020)

Paper: SEC

Course Title: Legislative Process in India

- Course Outcomes: The whole course will have the following outcomes
- Discuss the legislative process in India throw light on the role of the parliamentary committees; and highlight the changing role of the legislature
- Understanding the law and applying them in practical field.
- Inculcate the spirit of providing legal aid to citizens.
- Provide knowledge of a wide range of legal matters and application of such knowledge in other domains.