The handicraft sector is a dynamic, significant and productive sector and is considered as an export commodity for many developing countries. Today, handicrafts are the most important source of income and provide profitable employment in many developing countries. Frequently doing manual work accelerates the learning process and helps with adaptation, problem-solving, and acquiring new skills. They also develop critical thinking, perseverance, and patience! These benefits are for all ages, but children and the elderly get special attention. Purulia is rich in culture and traditions and handicrafts of this place are famous all over the world. The event started with an introductory speech of the convenor stating clearly the rules and regulations of the event. All students performed well in the event. Prizes and certificates were distributed at the end of the event.
