Certificate of Recognition

The NSS Program Officers and Volunteers of Panchakot Mahavidyalaya, Sarbari, have our sincere gratitude for their essential service to the village by conducting a Mask and Sanitizer Distribution Camp during the 2020–21 session. Particularly in rural regions, their efforts to increase awareness of COVID-19 and offer crucial information are greatly appreciated. The initiative made people far more aware about COVID-19 and stressed the value of mask use and sanitization procedures. Sincere gratitude is sent on behalf of the panchayet community for the kind donation of a sizable quantity of masks and hand sanitizers. We pray for the safety of all volunteers and send our best wishes to the NSS Unit for success in their upcoming COVID-19 social activities.

Certificate of Recognition

We express our gratitude for organizing the "Health Awareness" program in July 2022, in a grand manner. The program proved immensely beneficial for the public, offering valuable insights into maintaining a healthy lifestyle. We hope that those who benefited from the program will incorporate the awareness into their daily lives, promoting better health outcomes. Your students played a pivotal role in the event's success, showcasing remarkable support and cooperation throughout. Their dedication to community welfare is commendable, and we appreciate their efforts in ensuring the program's smooth execution. We anticipate future collaborations aimed at furthering health education initiatives and improving overall well-being within the community.

Certificate of Recognition

For planning a social service project in the village, the NSS Unit of Panchakot Mahavidyalaya, Sarbari, has our sincere gratitude and a certificate from this gram panchayat. During the years 2022-2023, they organized a powerful awareness campaign that included posters, rallies, and street plays. The campaign focused on important topics like the elimination of drugs and tobacco, self-cleanliness, girls' education and safety, the significance of building toilets in homes, Swachh Bharath Drive, and cancer awareness. Sarbari Gram Panchayat is grateful for the Principal, Management, and NSS Programme Officer's ongoing assistance, as the program has shown to be very useful for the villagers.

Regards and thanks again.
