

PROGRAMME OUTCOME

Department of English

Programme Outcome

After completion of the Programme students will get a comprehensive knowledge of History of English Literature starting from the Anglo-Saxon period to Elizabethan Period. They will also gain a basic understanding of Rhetorics and Literary Types. Introduction to basic elements of poetry will enable the students to read poetry from different perspectives. The students will develop the ability to critically read prose and poetry. They will also gain a detailed knowledge of some masterpieces of British poetry and drama of 14th to 17th centuries which will develop their appreciation of literature as a whole and develop their interest for further knowledge in the field.